LEND A HAND.

VOLUME XV.

A RECORD OF PROGRESS.

THIS journal gives interesting and intelligible accounts of successful effort in all parts of the country for the relief of poverty, the prevention of pauperism, the diminution of crime, the elevation of the Indian races, and, in general, the advance of social order.

Its correspondence abroad is large, and it has the assistance at home of many of our best writers.

It gives adequate attention to our local charities in Boston. But its work is national, and its circulation extends to all parts of the country. Its correspondence is so extensive that we are able to secure information as to successful effort in all parts of America.

The conductors try to present the subjects discussed in such form as shall enlist general interest. It is not a journal of the science of social economy ; it is rather a record of successful effort.

The Editorial Board consists of:

EDWARD E. HALE, Chairman.

MRS. BERNARD WHITMAN, the Secretary of the Lend a Hand Clubs.

REV. JOHN TUNIS, to whom are assigned the subjects relating to co-operative charity.

MISS MARY E. DEWEY, Secretary of the Massachusetts Indian Association.

A. BLAIR THAW, M. D., who is our New York correspondent.

H. SIDNEY EVERETT, Washington correspondent.

JOHN VISHER, Secretary of the Illinois Conference of Charities.

REV. CLARENCE GREELEY, General Agent of the International Law and Order League.

And we have had regular assistance from HON. HERBERT WELSH, President of the National Indian Association ; PROF. RICHARD T. ELY, HON. ALFRED T. WHITE, HON. SETH LOW, MISS MARY A. LATHBURY, MISS ANNA L. DAWES, MISS SARAH H. PALFREY, MISS LUCRETIA P. HALE, and GEORGE TRUMAN KERCHEVAL.

EDWARD EVERETT HALE'S PATRIOTIC STORY,

"THE MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY."

---

This little book, written during the war, and intended to assist in raising the standard of love of country and true patriotism, is well fitted for the study of our young people today.

Its pure English and vivid descriptions, added to its patriotic character, make it eminently a fit book for supplementary reading in grammar and high schools.

Printed on white paper with clear type, and bound in attractive covers displaying the American flag, it cannot fail to please.

Cloth, 50 cents.      Board Covers, 25 cents.

Paper Covers, 20 cents.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

We are glad to send sample copies to superintendents or teachers of schools for 15 cents.

We make a liberal discount to schools.
